THE ASSOCIATED GRAMMAR SCHOOLS OF VICTORIA

A SPORTING AND SOCIAL HISTORY

by Dennis Carroll

A group of eight schools, the oldest of which had been founded in 1871, adopted the title "Associated Grammar Schools of Victoria" in October 1920. One month later the first AGSV premiership trophy was awarded to Camberwell Grammar at the conclusion of the Combined Athletics, held at the MCG. Carey Baptist Grammar School, which opened in 1923, would be a member of the AGSV between 1928 and 1958.

This new book, commissioned by the current nine schools, covers the history of the AGSV sporting contests, as well as providing a concise social history of the times and numerous feature stories about outstanding individuals who attended AGSV schools.

At $45 per copy, the history (hardback, case bound, large format) is 324 pages in length and features more than 1,000 photographs (accompanied by in excess of 7,000 names). Also included is a names index of the more than 3,300 individuals who are mentioned in the text.
